

Meredith Xcelerated Marketing Names Justin Prough Executive Creative Director for MXM's Genex Unit

NEW YORK, N.Y. (November 20, 2012) -- Meredith Xcelerated Marketing (MXM), the customer engagement agency of the Meredith Corporation (NYSE:MDP, www.meredith.com) today announced that it has named Justin Prough as Executive Creative Director for MXM's Genex business unit.

In this new role, Prough will be responsible for overseeing creative development for Genex's broad portfolio of digital clients.

Prough joins Genex with over fifteen years of experience building and leading world class brands and teams.

His background includes serving as Creative Director with agencies such as TBWA\Chiat\Day, TEQUILA, and Ignited, where he has guided the creative strategy for brands ranging from Nissan to Activision to Levi's to Logitech. His work has consistently been recognized at leading interactive and advertising industry events, including the Webby, MIXX, AdTech and Catalyst awards, along with honors at Cannes and the Effies for creating breakthrough integrated campaigns.

"Justin is simply a superb creative leader. He balances deep digital savvy with a keen understanding of the greater media landscape," says Kristi VandenBosch, SVP/GM Chief Digital Officer, Genex. "His unique ability to shape insightful ideas for brands will be a great asset to the diverse clients served by Genex."

Prough graduated with Honors from the University of Redlands with a BA in New Media Design. He is an accomplished fine artist and avid surfer and will be based in the Genex Los Angeles office.
