

Better Homes and Gardens Tops One Million Facebook Fans

New York, N.Y. (July 2, 2013) – Better Homes and Gardens announced today that it has surpassed one million fans on Facebook.

This milestone reflects the brand's strong presence across social media, connecting and engaging its audience with fresh content and conversation around passion points including lifestyle, home and food.

Better Homes and Gardens also tops other women's service and lifestyle magazine brands on Pinterest, with more than 370,000 followers, and has the fastest growing website in its competitive set. The BHG Network has close to 8 million unique monthly visitors, according to ComScore.

"Connecting with BHG loyalists on social media has been a key engagement strategy, and we're thrilled to have hit this landmark number on Facebook," said Janell Pittman, General Manager, BHG.com. "Our talented social team uses data to understand her passions. We've really tapped into what inspires and excites our fans on social – from trends and visuals to special events and helpful ideas – and you see that excitement reflected in our high 'talking about this' numbers."

To celebrate its one million fans, Better Homes and Gardens has launched a behind-the-scenes video to thank its fans and created an exclusive download of most-shared content. Additionally, the Facebook page features special "thank you" imagery (see below).

"Social media lets us stay in constant conversation with our consumer," said Gayle Butler, Editor in Chief, Better Homes and Gardens. "It enables us to give her quick bites of content throughout her day and also hear what's on her mind."
