

Registration Opens Today for the SHAPE + Health Women's Half Marathon Set to Take Place on Sunday, April 10

One of the Largest Women-Only Half Marathons in the Country Returns to Central Park for 2022 in Partnership with New York Road Runners

NEW YORK, Dec. 16, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Dotdash Meredith's SHAPE, the authoritative voice speaking directly to women who lead an active lifestyle, and Health, the source of inspiration to live well in every way, today launched registration for the SHAPE + Health Women's Half Marathon, which will take place on Sunday, April 10 in New York City's Central Park. The 17th annual race features two course offerings: its traditional 13.1-mile course and a 5.8-mile loop, a new addition for the 2022 event. The race is hosted in partnership with the renowned New York Road Runners (NYRR), the world's premier community running organization. To register for the 2022 SHAPE + Health Women's Half Marathon, visit here.

"After two years without this race due to the pandemic, we're beyond thrilled that the SHAPE + Health Women's Half Marathon is back and better than ever. This empowering event brings together thousands of women from all over the world for a day of fun, fitness, and female camaraderie – all in celebration of women running the world," said Liz Vaccariello, SHAPE Editor in Chief.

Leading up to the race, SHAPE and Health will debut new content with expert training advice, running gear suggestions, and more for runners of all levels, including beginner-friendly tips for those new to running, as well as specific advice for avid runners looking to hit personal records. Head to SHAPE.com and Health.com for more.

"We're looking forward to collaborating with our sister brand, SHAPE, on this iconic race and the exciting initiatives that lead up to it. Whether you're coming from across the country or from around the corner, join us in Central Park for an unforgettable event," said Amy Conway, Health Editor in Chief.

To ensure the health and safety of all participants, all runners are required to show proof of full vaccination against COVID-19. The charity partner for the event is Food Bank For New York City.

"We are excited for the return of the SHAPE + Health Women's Half Marathon, which brings together thousands of women from all over for a day filled with fitness and camaraderie in beautiful Central Park," said Christine Burke, NYRR's Senior Vice President of Strategic Partnerships and Runner Products. "Through this partnership we are able to inspire women of all backgrounds and abilities to live a healthy and active lifestyle."

On race day, supporters and spectators are invited to cheer on runners along the course in Central Park and visit the Race Day Festival at the park's Naumburg Bandshell, which will feature live music, an awards ceremony, raffles, and other interactive activities.
